PAPER MONEY ROUND-UP ALLIED OCCUPATION CURRENCY: AN INTERESTING FIELD

By Harold Don Allen

Some of the most interesting paper money to come out of the Second World War also happens to be some of the most accessible — collectors rarely are so fortunate! The interesting, accessible currency is the five splendidly engraved series brought with them by Allied troops as they moved into Italy, France, Austria, Germany and Japan. It is perhaps fitting that the notes possessing most to capture the enthusiasm of the collector prove to be those for the last-won areas of occupation, Germany and Japan. Our illustrated note, from the German series, shows the fine tracery which coupled with bright colouring to make the issue a particularly pleasing one to collect.

The five series represent an area in which the beginning collector can dabble at very little cost — and where the advanced student can hunt as he will to search out elusive high values in the prime condition his collection demands. There's something for everybody. Veterans brought back the lower denomination notes by the wad, and stamp and curio shops are glutted with them to this day. Yet you can pick up interesting specimens if you know what to watch for. We tried making the rounds of New York dealers this summer, and acquired a fascinating assortment for under a dollar. The secret is to know how and what to collect.

The Italian issue, dated 1943, is labeled "Allied Military Currency" and "Issued in Italy". The four smaller values are squarish, bordered in a distinctive colour and having their basic inscription in black over a pale brown harvesting scene. The 1, 2, 5 and 10 lire are bordered, respectively, in blue, violet, green and black. The higher denominations, which approximate dollar dimensions, repeat the same colour sequence with 50, 100, 500 and 1,000 lire notes.

The initial 1943 Italian series was particularly vulnerable to alteration, and was succeeded by the "1943-A" issue, bearing values in words as well as in figures. Denominations were from 5 lire through 1,000 lire, and the "1943-A" notes are somewhat the more common of the two types.

Issues for France, dated 1944, are perhaps the best known of Allied occupation money: the squarish 2, 5, and 10 francs, with their respective green, blue and reddish-purple overprints, are familiar to many collectors, as is their "tricolour" reverse. The higher denominations, 50, 100, 500 and 1,000 francs, are dollar-sized, with overprints in reddish-purple, blue, brown and orange-red. All have the waving French "tricolour" flag on reverse, but were reissued with modified inscriptions as true French money, the "tricolour" being replaced by the word "France". A "5,000" was prepared, but not released: the Chase-Manhattan Bank Museum of Moneys of the World, New York, has a "specimen" note of this denomination. The overprint is green.

Issues in marks came in eight denominations, of three sizes with characteristic overprints. Further they are coded to reveal the authority of issue, for separate notes were released in each of the four zones of occupation. Squarish notes are the ½

10 MARK MILITARY OCCUPATION CURRENCY

(green), 1 (blue) and 5 marks (reddish-purple), while the 10 mark (illustrated) is of intermediate size, and overprinted in blue. Higher denominations, dollar-sized, are the 20, 50, 100 and 1,000 marks, respectively overprinted in red, blue, reddish-purple, and green.

The serial number provides the key to the Zone of issue: numbers beginning with a "1" are of the American Zone, a "O", British, two or more zeros, French, and a dash, Russian — printed in Russia from plates produced in the United States. The American Zone generally proves the most elusive, and not all denominations were released in all Zones.

The Australian series, labeled "Serie 1944 - in Oesterrisch Ausgegeben", shows evidence of British craftsmanship on most denominations, as distinct from the work on the other four occupation series, which is strikingly American. Denominations are a 50 groschen and, in schillings, 1, 2, 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, 100, and 1,000.

The "yen" issues, for Japan and neighboring areas, strike us as the most attractive, with vivid colours and pleasing scrollwork and background effects. The notes are of three standard sizes, are designated "Military Currency" and Series 100", and are overprinted in characteristic hues. Further, the notes bear a large "A" or "B", a further series designation. "A" notes, particularly in higher denominations, prove excessively scarce. Values, with squarish format, are the 10 sen, 50 sen and 1 yen; of the intermediate size, the 5 and 10 yen; and, of dollar size, the 20, 50 and 100 yen.

The "yen" series shares with the Italian issue the "A-8-A" (letter, then eight digits, then another letter) type of serial number, familiar on United States notes. Serial numbers reverted to unity for the start of the "B" series, but ran on, sequentially, through the changeover from "1943" to "1943-A" Italian notes.

The vivid colours on many of these notes did not stand up well to circulation, and prime condition commands a good premium on scarcer notes. Little literature is available on these series, and much research remains to be done. Many anecdotes concerning this occupation money and how it functioned deserve recording while they are relatively fresh in the minds of those who saw it used.

AD FORMS CLOSE THE 20th OF EACH MONTH.

Entered as second class matter October 13, 1956 at the post office of Newark, New Jersey under the act of March 3, 1879.

FROM YOUR EDITOR'S DESK:

It won't be long after you receive this issue, Christmas and the New Year will be with us. Our writers, staff, printers and yours truly, would like to take this opportunity to wish our friends and readers, A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS and A HAPPY PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

On this page we offer our special for the holidays, a nice jester would be to have a subscription sent by you to a favorite charity, library, museum, coin club, or any worthy group. Make someone happy by letting them know you haven't forgotten them. Fill out the enclosed form to your choice and we will be happy to send the subscription with a surprise gift and a beautiful greeting card with your name.

This issue will be the last for 1958. This year will close with the 1955-S cents bringing $7.50 per roll, a few months ago they sold for $2.25. Many collectors are wondering if this price will hold. A good source of evaluation is to study the supply, demand and availability. So far we have the figure of supply some 44,000,000 which are not easily available and they are in demand as you can see by the price increase. Only the future can foretell. The 1958-P nickel is beginning to follow the same straits as the 1956-P nickel from a mintage of a few million it hit some 33,000,000 by the years end. As you will note the age of a coin alone will not determine its value nor the quantity struck. No one is really a prophet, but we will venture a guess for the future, watch your proofs before 1950, Indian and Lincoln cents a steady popularity. Commemoratives might wake up in midyear. I believe this popular series was hurt by the steady increase of price and most of all, by the theory expression the Commemoratives should be absolute B.U. leaving the collectors in the middle of the road with their sets of fine or better. The collector a pretty shrewd bargainer, would like to own sets of value also, besides interest to protect their investments. I doubt if a handful of dealers at the recent conventions displayed any commemoratives. There just were no takers. The commemorative half dollar is the most interesting of all U.S. series, a set in fine or better should make any owner proud of its countries history. Like every commodity in life if it has a high trade in value, it will be in demand. Gold coins always has an interest, especially if the gold standard should increase from $35.00 per oz. to say fifty. Many will be sitting pretty. Confederate and Broken Bank notes which are fairly accessible are still being sold at low prices, which makes it easier for a collector to save. Canadian coins, although still considered as foreign have become very popular with the collector and is drifting into a separate series from foreign.

The Criswell brothers, is said to be working hard at getting their 2nd edition out. Their editions of listings and new varieties has done much for the new interest in this series.

Clarence Fink, our writer from California will shortly have his new book "Pieces of Fate" on the market.

We have endeavored to give our readers a variety of interests in our writings and photos. We are constantly looking forward to keeping your interest and satisfaction on hand. It is only through you the reader and letters received that we know what your likes dislikes and interests are. Your comments and suggestions are always welcomed.

Token Medal - Store Cards, a preservation history of the past.

The first coin left to right is a George Washington inauguration medal, New York, April 30, 1789. The reverse has New York-Brooklyn progress of 100 years. An engraving of the Brooklyn Bridge with small boats sailing. The bottom exergue has "The Eighth Wonder". Most of these early medals were holed to be carried as pocket pieces.

The center coin is a store card issued by the merchants to advertise their products years ago. The inscription has V. Benner & Ch. Bender 1863, above the date is the engraved name, L. Roloes. The reverse has "Importers of Wines & Liquor". The center has a wine bottle within a wreath and No. 1 Ave. A.

The 3rd coin, a store card also, has the features and design of a U.S. gold piece. In the band on the forehead is E. Lyon, the engravers name. The inscription reads, 424 Broadway, N.Y. The reverse has "magnetic powder & pills for insects & rats". The center has the eagle with branch and arrows.

These tokens and store cards provide an interesting series to collect, except for a few rare pieces, they are fairly common and are usually found among odd accumulations.

Next Meeting in Private Dining Room #3, November 22nd, 1958

Dr. J. S. Wilkinson chaired the meeting of October 25th. The meeting was well attended. There were seven guests, one of whom was Mr. Roy Hill, Vice-President of the East Bay Coin Club of Oakland, California, and a member of the CNA, holding membership card #45.

Mr. John J. Pittman gave one of his very interesting talks, this time on the subject of the 1804 silver dollar and on Brazilian currency. Mr. Pittman has such a wealth of knowledge about coins that his talks are most enlightening and it is a pity that more of our members do not hear him and see the coins which he brings with him on his visits to the club.

There was a large and successful table auction. The lucky draw was won by Mr. Max Pinkus, the draw having been made by Miss Nola Crewe.

THE PICKINGS AREN'T SO GOOD

A story was mentioned about (2) fast operators who thought they might unload some counterfeit bills in the back woods. Their first stop was a hillbilly farmer, "how much yau asking for that basket of apples?" asked one of the operators, "$1.00" replied the farmer. One of the men handed over a $15. bill, "we'll take a basket!" The farmer promptly took the bill and gave them back (2) $7. bills in change.

NUMISMATIC QUESTION - ANSWER BOX

By C. Lynn Glaser

Q. Is the dollar bill signed by Robert B. Anderson with the star before the serial number and without "In God We Trust" a collectors item?
Mrs. I. G., Vici, Okla.

A. "Star Notes" are used for replacement of imperfectly processed currency. Any sheet of currency having more than eight imperfect notes is replaced with a new sheet of 18 notes (for non "In God We Trust" bills) or a half sheet of 16 notes (for "In God We Trust" notes which are produced on 32 instead of the old 18 subject sheets). Sheets having less than 9 defective bills are replaced with single notes. The Result is that the current procedure of replacing whole sheets or half sheets with star notes has made them more plentiful. However some collectors save star notes and it's possible that in the future old series notes with stars will command a premium.

Q. What happened to the original Mint Building?

A. The First Mint Building erected in 1792 was in addition to being the first Mint was also the first building constructed for public use by the New United States Government. The "History of the United States Mint" written by George Evans in 1885 says this "the original mint is still standing and is being used as a carpenter shop". The building, located at Seventh Street below Arch in Philadelphia was torn down in 1907 by Frank Stewart after he made an effort to have the government preserve it as a national shrine. On December 17, 1792 Coiner Henry Voight wrote "Struck Off a few pieces of copper coins" when the mint was being demolished two Silver Center Cent blanchets were found. I have stood on that corner many times and it's always fun to think back to the days of George Washington when that site was occupied by an operational mint turning out coins for our nations forefathers!

Q. Do all U.S. coins have unlimited legal tender?

A. Numerous bills of financial legislation were passed in 1933 in an effort to weaken the depression. Among them was the Legal Tender Act passed on June 5, 1933, which granted these powers: All coins and currency of the United States previously or here after issued shall be legal tender for debts, taxes, duties et cetera (except trade dollars and gold coins). This bill apparently abolished all distinctions then in existence (such as fractional currency not being good in amounts over $5.00.) Just the same, the government takes a dim view of people who pay their income tax in pennies. So don't try it.

Q. What does R-1, R-2, R-3, etc. mean?

A. These numbers refer to a rarity scale R-1 means rarity 1 which indicates that only a certain number of a coin are in existence. There are several rarity scales in existence but the one that is most common is the Sheldon Scale. It is R-1 (over 1,250 items estimated in collector's hands); R-2 (501 to 1250 items known); R-3 (201 to 500); R-4 (76-200); R-5 (31 to 75); R-6 (12 to 30); R-7 (4 to 12); R-8 (1,2 or 3 known).

Q. What was international coinage? — M. J. Montrose, Calif.

A. About the years 1870-1880 several countries saw the need for an international monetary unit. It was partially through the efforts of J. A. Kasson then the U. S. Minister in Austria, Dr. W. W. Hubbell, inventor of Goloid Metal and a few other individuals who have been confused by the numerous types of foreign coins that this experimentation came about. Our International coins were based on the four dollar stella. The theory was that a $4.00 denomination would assist our foreign trade as it would correspond to the Latin Monetary System used by many nations. There were several denominations struck. Needless to say nothing came of it except some exceptionally beautiful and rare coins.

"Old Canadian Disks With The Historical Touch"

By Clarence M. Fink

Nineteenth century housewives and men shoppers had complete faith in the integrity of most of the Canadian tokens listed by Breton and Dr. Leroux, two of the most celebrated numismatists of Canada, and these important historical items existed during the various depressions and financial crisis of that country, admirable filling the shortage gap left many times by insufficient currency.

During the issuance of Canadian tokens, Canada was a vast domain of many square miles into which were scattered small communities, a few significant cities, and isolated farms along a broken fringe of settlements from the Atlantic to the Pacific. During one of the numerous hard times periods which started on 1884 and continued acute until 1890, a number of important banks became insolvent, which forced the revision of the Bank Act in 1890, and brought into being the Canadian Banker's Association in December 1891. As in earlier times, tokens remained a good exchange currency, and were used regularly by the public, though a small group of ambitious coin collectors removed some of the better items from circulation.

A society of Canadian numismatists with a "lust to learn," and a "willingness to teach" recorded the doings of the times by listing and collecting all outstanding historic items including the scarce and rare medals and souvenirs of which not too much is known. Had not the following hobbyists laid the foundation of knowledge concerning these fine commemoratives, there is doubt whether the known number would be as large as it is. Besides Breton and Dr. Leroux there were L. H. Renaud, John Dow, N. MacFarlane, George W. Parent, P. O. Tremblay, James Reid, Victor Morin, Robert W. Redfort all of Montreal, and R. O. Montambault of Quebec, Dr. Eugene G. Courteau, St. Jacques, Quebec, L. J. Casault, Ottawa, Joseph of Port Hope, and others.

Dr. Courteau produced many valuable publications on Canadian subjects. His "Coins and Tokens" of Nova Scotia" in 1910, "Wellington Tokens" of 1915, "Copper Tokens," 1919, "Habitant Tokens of Lower Canada (Province of Quebec)" 1927, and the "St. George Copper Tokens of the Bank of Upper Canada," 1934 shows a keen study and observation of the subjects printed. The medals, and miscellaneous put forth in this article are items of real numismatic interest, and historically significant for highlighting past Canadian events. Special credit should go to Dr. Leroux for his highly respected books in the numismatic field. His "Canadian Coin Cabinet, is in opinion a masterful journal of research, very accurate in classification, and nicely illustrated. The prices listed are approximate values today, though their value is rising quite steadily due to a strong demand for Canadian items of all types. Some might be more valuable due to some of them being more scarcer and rarer than believed, but all of them should be historically priceless to the serious-minded hobbyist who delves into the past.

Dear Sir:

This last week I have had two interesting finds out of circulation. First a 1916-D dime, good condition. Second a 1955-P Lincoln Cent, I think it could be called frosted, and double shifted on obverse in normal condition.

Enclosed money for another 12 months of good reading. THE FLYING EAGLET.

Dear Sir:

I have been a collector for about the last 4 years and have gone through many rolls of coins, but much to my surprise yesterday going through 1 roll 25¢, 2 rolls 10¢, 4 rolls cents I found a 42 over 41 Mercury dime in V.F. shape. This proves to me there is still some scarce coins in circulation.

A PROOF BUGS BUNNY HALF

Lt. Edmond Hock, of Eglin AFB, Fla. reports he found a 1952 proof error half in his set. He has examined several hundred proof sets since but never found another. A proof should be a perfect coin, but this half has a break in the die similar to the Bugs Bunny 1955 Half.

—O—

1878 CIRCULATED PROOF SHIELD NICKEL

Ernest Donaway, of Rock Island, Ill. reports an unusual find and purchase. At a recent dinner and auction he bidden on and got an 1878 Proof nickel in good condition. Only proofs were struck in that year. Evidently this scarce proof was unknowingly circulated.

Gem 1877-CC Half Hidden Under a Rug

Mrs. Alan Faison, of San Antonio, Texas reports among a number of other rare finds an 1877-CC gem half. She believes it was hidden under a rug since it was minted. She found this half among some coins that belonged to a dear friend of the family as a birthday present since she was a child. She feels lucky and happy to add it to her collection.

Good Old Parking Meters

Everett Baumbarten, of Stewardson, Ill. reports finding among other scarce dates, a 1914-D cent, 3 - 1931-D, 1 - 1922-D. He looks through some 80 to 120 rolls each week from parking meters.

DRIVER PUTS GOLD PIECE IN PARKING METER

There was gold in that thar parking meter yesterday.

Harry Horter, of 2304 Azeele, got some raised eyebrows when he showed up at the city police station with a request for an officer to go gold prospecting in a certain downtown meter.

But Horter explained he had reached into his pocket, got what he thought was a penny, and dropped it in the meter. To his horror, he later examined his pocket, and found a $2.50 gold piece missing.

The piece was the general size and color of a penny, so it was a reasonable mistake. But didn't the police think a gold coin was overpayment for 13 minutes parking?

A police meter mechanic, carried by his faithful old mechanical mule, went prospecting into the wilds of downtown Tampa and emerged triumphant with the gold piece.

Horter got his gold back - and the 13 minutes of parking it purchased, to boot.

—O—

Dear Sir:

Received my first copy of the Flying Eaglet after an absence of a year and was very happy to get it. I sure did miss it.

I think you are doing a very good job. Keep up the good work.

Enclosed please find a check for $1.00 for 6 of your "Grading Sheets". I did not see them in your Sept. issue, but it sounds like something that a lot of us small coin collectors could use.

Thank you,

"Knowledge Is Light"

This is the theme of the second Israel commemorative coin to be released in November on the occasion of Chanukah. (The Festival of Lights). Two Judean Kings are honored by this new coin. The seven branched Candelabra (The Menorah), shown on the Chanukah coin, and the official emblem of the State of Israel, was first used by King Mattathias on the coins of his realm. Mattathias Antogenus assumed the title of king when he rose to power in 40 B.C.E. and ruled until put to death by the Romans at Antioch four years later.

The stars shown on both sides of the "Menorah" are those used by King Alexander Jannai on his coinage. King Jannai added greatly to the glory of Jewish history.

This new coin has been designed by graphic artist Zvy Narkiss of Israel. It is being struck in a copper-nickel alloy by the Swiss government mint at Zurich, Switzerland. The denomination of the coin is one Israel pound, but will be sold officially at a premium. The minting is limited to 250,000 coins and 5,000 proof coins.

In accordance with the official policy of not reissuing any Israel commemorative coin, this will be the only minting of the Chanukah coin. All coins of Israel are distributed to American dealers exclusively through the Numismatic Division Israel Philatelic Agency in America, Inc., 155 W. 30th Street, New York 1, N. Y. Collectors should contact their favorite dealers for further info.

JUST ONE MAN'S OPINION

The Carson City Dollars are the most underpriced series of all coins minted.

All one has to do is check the number minted of each year and you will see that there will never be enough to supply our five (5) million or more (est.) collectors.

Take the 1885 with only 228,000 minted. This would be one for about every twenty-one collectors.

Second comes the 1881 with only 296,000 and so on.

I have a few sets of the 1880 through 1885 complete in Strictly Brilliant Uncirculated.

For set of six (6) $21.95

Below are my prices for single coins . . . all Brilliant Uncirculated.

1878-CC Proof Surface . . . $ 6.00	1882-CC Brill. Unc. 4.00	1889-CC Brill. Unc. 90.00
1879-CC Proof Surface . . . 20.00	1883-CC Brill. Unc. 4.00	1890-CC Proof Surface . . . 6.00
1880-CC Brill. Unc. 6.00	1884-CC Brill. Unc. 4.00	1890-CC Brill. Unc. 4.50
1881-CC Brill. Unc. 5.00	1885-CC Brill. Unc. $ 5.00	1891-CC Brill. Unc. 4.50
1882-CC Proof Surface . . . 5.50	1885-CC Proof Surface . . . 7.00	1892-CC Brill. Unc. 5.50

Please keep in mind that I guarantee every dollar I sell to be Strictly Brilliant Uncirculated.

Money back guarantee plus return postage if not pleased.

My second offering for this month is, in my opinion, a small set with a future.

The War Time Silver Nickel consisting of 11 coins minted 1942 to 1945. (see Red Book).

This set in Brilliant Uncirculated is beautiful and also underpriced in this booming coin market.

My price for the complete set is . . $4.50 Only until present stock is sold.

The 1943-D is of course in this set and this is one that I compare in value to the 1942-D which is selling today for $4.50 each.
